[LETTER.]

OXFORD, MISS., 23d Feb. 1866.

MESSRS. WALKER & BRICKELL:

Gentlemen—I am requested by C. M. Thompson—son of Jacob Thompson—to write to you to engage your services in a matter of some difficulty and delicacy.

Jacob Thompson who was Secretary of the Interior during Mr. Buchanan's administration, and for whom the President has offered a reward of $25,000, is in Europe where his wife has joined him. C. M. Thompson, his only son, resides here and the owner of all the property, real and personal, formerly owned by his father, by a conveyance from his father made more than a year before the surrender. He has been pardoned by the President. Some of the property formerly owned by his father had been seized by order of the Government, but was restored to him when he received his pardon. The land patents, deeds, bonds, notes and other valuable papers of his father's were stolen from his residence in this place in December, 1862, when General Grant's army occupied the place, and were supposed forever lost, but it appears from the enclosed letters that they are still in existence. The writer, A. J. Applegate, is doubtless the man who has them in possession, and it is no more than probable that he is the man who took them. You will see that he exhibits a shameless purpose to extort money for their delivery.

Now, can you so manage as to ascertain whether this man, Applegate, has these papers in his possession, or in whose possession they are—and can you, by any proceedings or management, procure them?

The taking, etc., of land titles, bonds, notes, etc., is larceny by the statute of the State. I presume you have some civil process by which they may be reached—if you can learn who has them.

But I suggest that it may be necessary to proceed with great caution, as the party in possession may destroy them, or leave the country with them, etc. Please let me hear from you.

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
H. A. BARR, Attorney at Law.

HUNTSVILLE ALA March 8th 1866

MR. C. MACON THOMPSON,
OXFORD MISS

Sir; I wrote to you some days ago & having receive no answer & in compliance with a request from my Friend I write to inform you that He desires leaving the country & desires to here from you before He does so & what your feelings in regard to papers now in His possession He also requested me to inform you to write If it would not be inconsistant with you feelings to do so, & give your terms upon which you are willing to recover the lost papers &c

Very Resptly
A. J. APPLEGATE.

OXFORD, MISS., 15th March, 1866.

Messrs. Walker, Brickwell & Lewis:

GENTLEMEN: Yours of the 3d instant has been received, and I have seen Mr. Thompson. He hands me another letter from Applegate, which he has just received, and which I inclose to you.

Mr. Thompson directs me to authorize you to offer as high as three hundred dollars ($300) for the Patents, Deeds, Notes and Maps. I think it is probable that the creature will take less rather than nothing. It is manifest that they can be of no benefit to him—except to enable him to extort money. Hence he will part with them at the best bid he can get—and probably at one hundred dollars rather than get nothing.

Mr. Thompson is exceedingly averse to paying him anything—he feels that the fellow ought to be punished rather than rewarded or compensated. We find that the loss can be so supplied that no loss will occur from the absence of the papers, still it will be a considerable saving of trouble to get the originals. He will not give more than $300. Please let me hear from you.

Very resp'y your ob'd't serv't,
H. A. BARR,
Att'y at Law.

[RECEIPT.]

Jacob Thompson vs. A. J. Applegate. } 2 cts. Int. Revenue Stamp. } A. J. Applegate hereby acknowledges to have received of Jacob Thompson by the hands of Walker, Brickell & Lewis, three hundred ($300) dollars for certain patents, papers, note book, deeds &c., which fell into the hand of said Applegate, during the war, and are now returned to said Thompson throug Walker, Brickell & Lewis on payment of the aforesaid three hundred dollars, June 14, 1865.

[Signed] A. J. APPLEGATE.

BY TELEGRAPH.

THURSDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES.

Probable Defeat of the Alabama Constitution.

The President's Reply to General Grant.

NEW YORK, February 6.—The World's Washington special states that it is confidently expected that within a few days Johnson will send to Congress a message, in which the legitimate demands of the United States Government upon Great Britain for losses occasioned by the privateer Alabama, and for the recent and current unlawful imprisonment of American citizens in Ireland and England, are to be most definitely made known.

The Tribune's Washington special says the Reconstruction Committee has taken the Grant-Johnson correspondence into consideration, with a view to ascertain if the President has laid himself liable to impeachment; and will make a thorough examination of the alleged effort of the President to hinder the proper execution of the laws.

The Herald special states that the President will make public to-day his reply to Grant. It will be supported by the statements of various members of the Cabinet, confirming the President's version of the late difficulty in the War Office.

WASHINGTON, February 6.—The report of the Freedmen's Bureau in North Carolina shows considerable suffering there among the freedmen, from non-payment of wages due them from their employers, who are unable to pay, on account of short crops the past year. Employers will have to support the freedmen until the next planting season opens. During December, 2430 rations were distributed to sick persons, orphans and freed people. Two hundered and thirty schools are attended by 12,500 pupils.

NEW YORK, February 6.—The World's Montgomery special of the 5th states that all the returns up to to-night indicate the defeat of the new Constitution. Five counties, with an aggregate registration of 19,349, have on the first day a vote of 2,434 negroes to three white men. Dallas, Lee and Montgomery counties, with 20,330 registered voters, gave a vote, up to to-night, of 5,804 negroes and sixteen whites—the latter all candidates. The State Register said to-day that he had no idea the ratification would be carried; that the heaviest part of the vote has been polled, but the same vote for the two remaining days would defeat the ratification by 25,000.

NEW YORK, January 6.—Rev. B. H. Paddock, of Detroit, Michigan, was on yesterday elected by the Protestant Episcopal Bishops in convention at St. John's chapel, in this city, as Missionary Bishop of Oregon.

MONTREAL, February 6.—The exportation of silver will be commenced immediately.

PITTSBURG, February 6.—Two feet water in the channel and falling. Weather cloudy. Thermometer 28°.

ALBANY, N. Y., February 6.—A large meeting was held last evening, which was addressed by prominent members of the Legislature, and a resolution was adopted favoring the protection of the rights of naturalized citizens abroad.

KNOXVILLE.

Destructive Conflagration Yesterday Morning.

Loss of Property near $120,000.

Special Dispatch to the Republican Banner.]

KNOXVILLE, February 3, 1868.

The most destructive conflagration that ever occurred in this city broke out this morning at one o'clock in Kennedy's dry goods store, and consumed a number of important buildings and a quantity of valuable property and material. Commencing at Kennedy's store, which was entirely destroyed, the flames spread with great rapidity, also consuming the old Exchange and Deposit Bank building, McClanahan & Brook's drug store, a vacant store-room adjoining the drug store, the law office of Logan & Logan, on Main street, the dry goods house of Nelson & Cruse, and the law office of Judge Jones, on Gay street.

The firemen, by heroic exertion and perseverance, were successful in saving the Franklin House, in the same block.

Kennedy's dry goods house was insured for twelve thousand dollars; Brook's and McClannahan's insurance was only five thousand dollars. The Odd-Fellows' Lodge, in the Bank building, secured a loss of one thousand dollars in valuable property destroyed, besides losing all their records.

The total loss is variously estimated at from seventy-five thousand to a hundred and twenty thousand dollars.

There is no doubt that the fire originated in Kennedy's store, and was caused by Kerosene or Aurora oil.

In the South Carolina Convention, Thursday, the police sent by General Clitz were ejected.

St. Xavier Seminary, located within two and a half miles of Laborie, Pennsylvania, took fire at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, and was totally destroyed.

Mrs. Philopena Summers, a widow, committed suicide in Louisville Sunday morning, by cutting her throat. She had been partially deranged for some time.

Jonesboro' (Tenn.) Flag states that on the night of the 24th ult., the Baptist Seminary, located at Fall Branch, Tennessee, was totally destroyed by fire. Loss $10,000. The Masonic lodge lost jewels, records, charter, etc. It was the work of an incendiary.

Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland, is going to vote in favor of the new "reconstruction" bill, infers the New Orleans Crescent, from the fact that he has made, according to the telegraph, "a powerful constitutional argument against the bill."

It is reported, says the Banner, here and at Knoxville that Captain E. J. Brooks, recently a paymaster in Brownlow's loyal militia, has absconded from the State with over eight thousand dollars of public funds.

We learn from the Banner that General Harding's mare Lida has dropped a fine Jack Malone colt, of a beautiful chestnut color, and said to be the image of the celebrated Jack. The dam of Lida was the imported mare Nannie Killem, and she was sired by Epsilom.

Number of Prizes, 25

Certificates $5 Each.

A Fortune or a Homestead for $5.

Capital Prize Valued at $20,000,

Which amount has recently been offered for the Springs and grounds immediately surrounding.

PRIZE NO 1.

The celebrated RALEIGH MINERAL SPRINGS, situated on the confines of Raleigh, late county seat of Shelby county, Tennessee, nine miles northwest of Memphis and two miles from Wolf's Station, on the Memphis and Louisville railroad. These springs are six in number, and of different and medicinal properties. They are visited every summer by thousands of seekers of health and pleasure from all quarters of the country. They are within a few days of the village of Raleigh, in a beautiful valley, and also within a few hundred feet of Wolf River, which winds around the base of the mineral cone, which the village of Raleigh is situated and empties into the "Father of Waters" at Memphis. Numerous remarkable cures of various diseases have been experienced by sojourners at this health inspiring retreat, and the present proprietor, Colonel J. M. Coleman, can produce hundreds of certificates of cures in cases which had been entirely given over by medical skill. The ground surrounding the springs, and in fact the entire village of Raleigh seem to an unlearned person as a natural provision for its healthfulness as beauty of location. The Springs are in fine order, several never-failing, and are designated as follows:

Marble Spring,
Box Spring,
Magnolia Spring,
Arsenic Spring,
Sulphur Spring,
Freestone Spring.

The place has never been visited by epidemic of any kind, and from the known character of its healthfulness in the memory of the inhabitants. The oldest citizens of Shelby county are residents of Raleigh.

The springs are as much resorted to by pleasure seekers as for invalids, owing to beauty of scenery and various artificial and rural attractions. Connected with the Springs are a Pavilion, Ladies' Bowling Alley, Rustic Arbors, Reading saloon, Billiard Room, Bowling Alley saloon, Billiard Room, Gymnasium, Refreshment Tables, etc., while Wolf river affords excellent boating, and fishing.

The grounds accompanying the Springs in the above scheme are laid out in the Pine Park, a fifteen acres in extent, overlooking the valley and affords in addition to a magnificent site for a grand hotel all other buildings; splendid facilities for a park, promenades, etc.

An analysis of the several Springs, by distinguished medical men, shows that they are unsurpassed in mineral and curative properties by any in the United States. There is no reason that why Raleigh should not become as famous as Saratoga, Sharon or Lebanon, and much longer lived. It needs only capital and energy to accomplish this end.

A Charter is before the State Legislature for the incorporation of the Springs and Village, and a railroad has been projected looking to a direct rail communication with Memphis.

The Raleigh Mineral Springs Company has been duly instituted in order that the above scheme may be fully carried out.

PRIZES.

The elegant COUNTRY MANSION HOUSE and lot residence of F. M. Robertson is within a few yards of the Springs, and is a fine Italian cottage, containing ten rooms, and is beautifully embowered in shrubbery. The lot is well fenced, and ornamented with fine shade and fruit trees, and has all necessary outhouses, cisterns, etc. It is midway between the village and Spring Valley, on the main promenade. Value, $5,000.

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS IN CASH.

PRIZE NO. 4 TO 25.

TWENTY-TWO COTTAGE LOTS, valued at two hundred and fifty dollars each. These lots are a portion of the village of Raleigh, delightfully situated, all fronting on thoroughfares, and will be drawn with the understanding that the winners shall have free access at all times to the Springs and belongings.

DETAILS OF THE DRAWING.

Six thousand and seven hundred tickets, representing the certificates issued, will be placed in one wheel and the same number of blanks (including twenty-five inscribed with names of the premiums) will be placed in another. From these tickets will be drawn at the same time, and the numbers drawn will take the premium drawn simultaneously.

The moneys received upon the sale of these shares will be placed in the German National Bank of Memphis, and will remain there to the credit of the Association until the drawing takes place.

ja29 W. B SCHULS.

FRIDAY, : : : FEBRUARY 7, 1868

WE publish this morning a call for a public meeting, in this city, on Wednesday next, signed by our most prominent citizens—men known for their moderation, prudence and integrity. Men born to freedom instinctively hate despotism and yearn for liberty, and it is not surprising that every man in Tennessee, disfranchised, degraded and humiliated with the chains of despotism, should give a cordial and enthusiastic support to any proposition having for its object the liberation of the noble men who have made the State all she is in greatness and prosperity. Two of our cotemporaries have already suggested a meeting of the citizens of Memphis to consider the grievances now imposed on the people of the State of Tennessee, and to declare to the NATION these wrongs. It is likewise proposed that the wisest and best men of this community be called upon to devise, if possible, some legal and peaceable means of escape from these evils, and to invite the people in every portion of the State to cooperate in the movement, and attain, if possible, the desired relief. No one, so far as we can learn, proposes any other methods than the force of public opinion duly organized, and operating through legal and constitutional channels. Certainly there is much in this project to commend it to the wise and patriotic. Greater results have been achieved by moral force, than were ever accomplished by armies. Indeed the work of the soldier, so far as effecting permanent results is concerned, is as nothing compared with that of organized opinion and earnest agitation by the writer and the orator. We can but here recall in this connection the great conclusion worked out by O'CONNEL, in his agitation of the question of Catholic emancipation in Ireland. When he commenced this movement there were certainly more formidable obstacles in his path than lie in the way of popular emancipation in Tennessee. He tried the volume and weight of organized public opinion, and succeeded beyond the fears of enemies and the hopes of friends. Beholding the great calamities that oppress the material interests of our people, which are, in a large measure, either the result of or aggravated by the present political and civil disorder and oppression which rests on the State, we cannot but regard the proposed enterprise as eminently worthy of a trial and greatly encouraging as to results. It is no time to despair. The recent elections in the North, though not clearly attributable at present to a recovered constitutional liberty, or to a sense of past errors, show, however, that such progress has been made under the pressure of material evils as may, it prudently fostered, lead to greater and more satisfactory results. If the scheme now taking shape and substance in the popular mind of our people can be wisely managed and matured, it will give a wonderful impetus to the reform commenced in the North, and may result in the complete restoration of constitutional liberty to the whole land. Then we say let the proposed effort in our midst be zealously sustained by our people. It has been inaugurated by some of our best and most substantial citizens. We, therefore, second the call which has already been made for a meeting, at Odd Fellows' Hall, on Wednesday 12th instant, unless some other time and place may be deemed more expedient.

LOOKING through our political horoscope, and surveying the skies of the recent past and the present, we do not hesitate to say that the Democratic party will triumph in the elections in this county next March. Nothing but shameless fraud and rascality in the registration of voters can prevent this result. Ward meetings are being held all over the city. Our friends in each civil district in the country are also holding meetings and appointing delegates to the Convention to be holden in this city on the 14th instant, for the purpose of nominating candidates for county officers. The party throughout the country are working with the right spirit. Every man who has a right to a certificate must not fail to procure one. This is a duty which a suffering country and a disfranchised people exact at their hands. The public liberties are in jeopardy. The heart of man yearns for freedom as it pants for air, and all who can vote must vote; they must interest themselves in securing certificates for themselves and see that those who are indifferent on the subject do their duty. The usurpers and conspirators are busily at work. Shall we stand by with folded arms and let these miscreants triumph? With the triumph of Radicalism every sensible man must see that every great interest is certain to be impaired and lost; that religion itself will be overthrown, and the foundation of society broken up and social ties upturned. An appeal in times like these is one which addresses itself not only to the lover of his country, not only to the admirer of the Constitution, not only to the venerator of the illustrious dead, not only to the followers of WASHINGTON, JEFFERSON, MADISON, CLAY, and WEBSTER, but to all conditions of life. To those who favor a quiet government, to those who advocate equality among the States, in a word, to every man who knows that this Union is not held together by links of iron, that it has thus far been maintained by reciprocal good feeling between the North and South, that it is kept together in bonds of love and affection, and that when these ligatures give way it will be as impossible to expect our Republic to stand as it will be to expect the human body to perform its functions after the human heart has been taken from it. And while danger hangs like a thunder cloud all over the nation, we hear the enemies of the Union, the fanatics who are keeping alive the expiring embers of an unfortunate war, laughing at the idea that any harm is to come to the country from their wicked machinations. If the enemies of peace, fraternity and constitutional justice, would manifest the least moderation and conciliation, we might then pass over this struggle and our Republic remain unshaken; but when, instead of this, we see every hound of faction, every hireling of Radicalism, every zealot whose life has been spent in one wild war upon the Republic, pouring out not merely slanders upon the institutions and people of the South, but threats, threats of the most horrible description, imprecations such as make the blood of the patriotic American curdle in his veins, and resorting to every expedient short of open violence, to awaken the slumbering elements of riot and of war, and to precipitate such a catastrophe as would cover the world in mourning—when we see all this, are we not justified in saying that it is blasphemous on the part of the men guilty of these atrocities to tell us there will be peace should they succeed, when we know there is no peace? The only way to give peace and quiet to the country is to crush out the fanatics—the enemies of the Constitution—and to place men in power who propose justice and equality, who love freedom and hate despotism. At the next March election the Democratic party must aid in this noble undertaking. The good work has already commenced. Let the ball roll on. Push on the column. Up with the ladders. Let the enemies' battlements be scaled.

WE welcome to our exchange list the Eagle, published at Water Valley, Mississippi, and edited by that gallant soldier and earnest patriotic gentleman, Captain WM. B. YOWELL of the 154th Tennessee regiment. It is scarcely necessary to inform our readers that the Eagle is a staunch Democratic press, and is conducted with an eye-single to the prosperity and welfare of the people of the proscribed States.

THE election took place in Alabama yesterday for State officers, under the Reconstruction Bill and the new Constitution recently adopted at Montgomery. The Democrats adopted the policy of non-voting, and we are rejoiced to see, from the returns, that the people of Alabama have refused to ratify the constitution concocted solely for the purpose of oppressing the old citizens of Alabama and give office and plunder to the carpet-bag adventurers. Our telegraphic dispatches inform us that in five counties only three white men voted, while in three others only sixteen whites voted; and all of these were candidates for office. Thus it will be seen Alabama has washed her hands of a political abomination, an infamous Constitution, conceived in fraud and brought forth in iniquity. We are proud of the State of our birth. She spurned the humiliating terms tendered, upon which she can exercise the rights which the Constitution gives her. We are still more rejoiced at the course Alabama has pursued on account of the candidate for Lieutenant Governor. We publish on the outside of to-day's AVALANCHE a full exposé of this dirty rascal. The letters which we publish show that Memphis is not the receptacle for all the filth and scum which the recent war has cast upon society. If Tennessee is cursed with a HUNTER, a SMITH, and a BARBOUR LEWIS; Mississippi is damned with a GILL, and Alabama scourged with an APPLEGATE. Our sisters in affliction may suppose that all the carpet-bag plunderers have been emptied into their bosoms; but if the Southern States were to hold a fair of villains Memphis would enter LEWIS or HUNTER—her models—feeling confident that she would take the premium. But APPLEGATE would prove a formidable rival. He is a representative man of the contemptible wretches who are now seeking to rob the Southern people of their liberties and to plunder them of their property. Nearly every Radical in office or seeing office are strangers, and intruders, with antecedents as infamous as their present conduct is atrocious—men who are not with us or of us, who have never been identified with the South, and know nothing of the wants or interests of the people upon whose taxes they live, while seeking to steal their freedom and their property. Most of these villains came South bankrupt in purse and character, bringing with them nothing but impudence, a carpet bag, a nasal twang, and a fondness for pilfering and pumpkin pies, but most of them will return gloating over their ill-gotten gains. Poor APPLEGATE, it seems, has been deprived of his share of the spoils. Since the people of Alabama have failed to throw the hungry dog a bone, we suggest that he come to Memphis and run for one of the many offices the Legislature is creating for the purpose of feeding the hungry thieves and carpet-bag rovers, whose search for office and plunder of late is like the pursuit of knowledge under difficulties.

Boyd & Co., Solicitors of Patents, No. 208 Pine street, St. Louis, Missouri, officially report to the AVALANCHE the following patents, granted Kentucky, Georgia and Louisiana inventors, for the week ending 28th January, 1868: C. HOUSE.

The Chair laid before the Senate a memorial from the Arkansas Convention, setting forth that the State officers are enemies of the Government, who persecute loyalists, and asking that the Convention be authorized to appoint officers. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

The Committee on Finance reported a substitute for Mr. Sherman's bill, introduced December 17, providing as follows: "That the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized to issue bonds bearing interest at five per cent., the principal and interest to be payable in coin, and due in forty years, but redeemable in ten years in an amount sufficient to cover all outstanding obligations of the United States, other than the five per cent. bonds, and to be exchanged or disposed of otherwise at not less than par. And said bonds or the proceeds thereof are to be used exclusively for the redemption or exchange of the existing securities of the United States. The bonds to be issued shall be known as the consolidated debt of the United States, and shall be exempt from all taxation by State or local authorities, and the same with the interest thereon and the income therefrom, shall be exempt from the payment of all taxes or duties to the United States, other than such income tax as may be assessed on other incomes, and in consideration of the reduction of the rate of interest there shall be appropriated out of the import duties an amount equal to one per cent. on the bonds issued, which shall be applied to the purchase or payment of the national debt. In addition to the sums necessary to pay the interest and maturing bonded debt of the United States, there shall be appropriated out of the Treasury a sum which, including said interest and maturing debt and the one per cent. aforesaid, shall amount to $135,000,000 annually, which sum shall be applied to the reduction of the debt in lieu of the sinking fund created by the act of February 25, 1862. The five twenty bonds shall, at the expiration of five years from the date of this, at the option of the holders, be exchanged for the five's bonds; and such as are now redeemable shall be presented for exchange before the first of November next and not thereafter, and the residue not held later than six months after the expiration of the five years from date, for lawful money of the United States, and the new bonds are to be exchangeable for each other when presented to the Treasurer, unless the amount of United States notes outstanding shall be equal to $400,000,000, or unless the United States shall resume payment in coin for the notes."

It repeals the limitations of the National banking laws, and allows any banking association depositing with the Treasurer of the United States the necessary securities, to issue National bank currency not exceeding eighty per cent. of the par value of the bonds so deposited; provided that, whenever the amount of United States notes and the circulating notes of the National banks, combined, shall be in excess of $700,000,000, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to withdraw and cancel, as rapidly as possible, United States notes to the extent of such excess, until the whole amount of United States notes outstanding shall be reduced to $250,000,000.

The last section says: "Any contracts hereafter specially made in coin shall be legal and valid, and may be enforced according to the terms of said contract."

Mr. Trumbull presented a petition from the colored citizens of North Carolina, setting forth their miserable condition, and asking that they be sent to Liberia. Referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Drake spoke in support of the Reconstruction bill.

HOUSE.

Mr. Chandler addressed the House in a criticism on the bill concerning the rights of American citizens abroad, liking it to the Niagara title bill, and said it was a roaring bill itself; it was a fail, and great was the fall thereof.

Messrs. Boyer and Woodward also made remarks, and the bill then went over until the morning hour next Tuesday.

Mr. Blair, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported the army appropriation bill, amounting to $33,000,000. It contains a provision for a gradual reduction of the army, until the military force is reduced to twenty-five regiments of infantry seven regiments of cavalry and five regiments of artillery. No new commissions shall be issued in any regiment, except to West Point cadets, as Second Lieutenants. The Secretary of War is directed to consolidate the regiments as rapidly as the requirements of the public service and the reduction in the number of officers will permit, until the foregoing minimum is reached. This provision is not to be construed so as to deprive any officer in commission from the promotion which may be open to him by the occurrence of vacancies among his superiors in rank. Such promotion are, however, to be always made so as to facilitate and not obstruct the consolidation of the regiments."

Mr. Blaine explained briefly the items of the bill, reading as follows: For the Navy, $18,000,000, which, compared with the average annual cost is over $13,000,000 in gold, under that of Mr. Buchanan's administration. For the legislative and judicial expenses, is $17,000,000; consular and diplomatic expenses, $125,000; Ordinance Department, $3,000,000; West Point Academy, $1,000,000; miscellaneous expenses, $14,000,000, making an aggregate of $60,000,000, which compared with $70,000,000 in gold for the like expenses of the Government during the first year of Buchanan's administration. To these ordinary expenses are to be added $30,000,000 for pensions, $5,000,000 for bounties, and $130,000,000 for interest on the public debt, making an aggregate expenditure for the Government of $275,000,000 for the year. This amount Mr. Blaine stated would be greatly reduced in future years when the bounties would not have to be paid, when the army list would be reduced, and the pensions curtailed, as they would rapidly be from various causes.

Mr. Ross inquired why the expenses of the government had not been reduced three years ago, and why this economy had been postponed until the elections were near at hand, and the dominant party seeking a new lease of power?

The bill was made the special order for the 13th.

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, who had reported the bill, made an argument against the amendment adopted by the Committee yesterday.

Mr. Schenck moved to strike out the item of forty five thousand dollars for the expenses of the Board of visitors to the academy, which, together with the amendment, was rejected, and the bill passed. The House then went into a Committee of the Whole on the Legislative, Executive and Judicial appropriation bill, but without disposing of the bill it adjourned.

General Meade sent a communication to Georgia Convention Tuesday, saying he would give it $30,000 by the 10th of March, but no further advances would be made, nor would he oppose or undertake any financial scheme for pay involving the credit of the State or in anticipation of future recommendation.

Garibaldi has written an eloquent and enthusiastic letter to admiral Farragut, in which he congratulates the United States on encouraging, by the presence of the American fleet, the national aspirations of Italy.

RECOVERED.—A bay mare, mule and wagon were recovered yesterday by detective Connell. He also returned to their owners a black mare and a bay mare mule. Where are the thieves?

Judging from the great number of sewing machines we see leaving the rooms of A. Sumner & Co., we concluded that every one in the city is getting a Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine. 3t

COAT STOLEN.—A negro, yesterday, went into the store of L. Levy, corner of Jackson and Main streets, and helped himself to a sealskin overcoat. He was pursued, but managed to get off scot free.

SENT UP.—U. M. Black was committed to jail yesterday, by 'squire Gleason, on a charge of stealing a cow. He was caught in the act of slaughtering her.

FALSE PRETENSES.—Andrew Scott was arrested yesterday for obtaining money under false pretenses. He is at present in custody, and will be tried to-day.

ARRESTED.—Thomas Folger was arrested yesterday for stealing a cow from Mrs. Thomas Malone, who lives on the corner of Jackson and Main. He will be tried to-day.

STOLEN CLOTHING.—Wm. Johnson, a negro, was arrested yesterday for having in his possession a suit of clothes which were supposed to have been stolen. Richards will attend to him as soon as court opens this morning.

INQUEST.—An inquest was held yesterday upon the body of an unknown man found lying in the road. No marks of violence were observable upon the person, and the jury returned a verdict that he died from want and exposure.

ROBBED.—Nathaniel Hall was robbed, night before last, of $25 and some clothing. A negro named Harry Dickinson was arrested for it, and will be examined this morning, when he will have an opportunity of exonerating himself.

The recent strike on the Clarksville road does not interfere with travel on the Memphis and Louisville railroad line, as arrangements have been made for the trains to run through via Nashville without change of cars.

NEW MEMPHIS.—The great speciality of Forrest, "Metamora," was produced last night to an overflowing house, and we can say that the audience were most appreciative. To-night he will appear in the "Gladiator," said to be his best character. On Saturday night Admiral Semmes will deliver his celebrated lecture, "The Cruise of the Alabama."

The Conservatives of the Fifteenth Civil District met at Mr. Higgs' store, on the evening of the 5th instant, at seven o'clock. Colonel K. B. T. White was called to the chair and T. McCleary elected as Secretary. Colonel Winn and Morris Doyle were elected delegates to the county convention;; T. McCleary and M. Crosson as alternates.

TO THE CONSERVATIVES OF THE FIFTH WARD.—There will be a meeting of the Conservatives of the Fifth ward in the Criminal Court room, in the Greenlaw building, on Second street, on Friday evening at seven o'clock, for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention. Come one, come all. JOHN P. TOBIN, President.

Thieving. Operation.

We understand that yesterday the bill which is to cut up the different clerkships, so that the friends of W. J. Smith, Barbour Lewis and Beecher could each receive the reward of their truculency and servility, became a law. It divides the clerkship of Shelby county, into three distinct offices, Collector of State and County Taxes on Privileges being number one; number two, the Recorder of the Board of County Commissioners, and the County Clerk performing the rest of the duties. This operation was put through for the purpose of creating more offices to enable the carpet-bag vagrants of the Lewis-Beecher stripe to live and steal from the poor taxpayers of Memphis. But no doubt the great motive of the detestable thieves was to legislate our present County Clerk, John League, out of office, and to strike a venomous blow at him and every Irishman in Memphis. We believe this, but it will fail of its intent; for they will be met with such a tornado of public indignation in March next, as will make them sink as low to the earth, as Beecher and Barbour Lewis are morally. When will those detestable cormorants be satisfied; when will they stay the cry of the Horse Leech's daughter—"Give, give!"

OUTRAGE.

An old Lady Robbed and Choked by two Negroes.

On the 5th of February, the residence of Mrs. Davids, an old lady living on Union avenue, was entered by two negroes, whose names are unknown, one of whom was black and the other yellow, who immediately proceeded to commit an assault upon her. They knocked her down, choked and kicked her until she was insensible. As soon as they had accomplished this, they proceeded to rob the house, and carried off a large quantity of wearing apparel, bed clothing, and a small sum of money. The names of the negroes are at present unknown, although the old lady has described them minutely to the police authorities. We hope that the detection and conviction of these scoundrels will be prompt, and that when they are found the action of the authorities will be "short, sharp and decisive."

MYSTERY.

The Remains of a Human Body Discovered in a Cotton Shed.

Yesterday in the Bluff City cotton shed, corner of Linden and Clinton streets, a mysterious discovery was made, which was nothing more or less than portions of a human body, which had apparently been shipped to this city in some refused unginned cotton or "moate." Mr. J. C. Waldrop was passing by the pile of refuse, and unthinkingly gave it a kick, when from amid the pile of cotton seed, refuse, etc., flew a human hand, belonging, when in life, it is supposed, to a negro. On further search the back bone and some of the ribs were discovered, and no doubt the remainder of the person will be brought to light as soon as an investigation can be made into the two unopened bales, which were received at the shed at the same time. This stuff was shipped to Messrs Payne & McConnell some two years ago, and since that time has been held there on storage. An examination will be made to-day, and we have no doubt but that every effort will be made to trace this mystery, for mystery it is beyond doubt. The present idea is that the body was enclosed in this cotton seed and shipped to the city from some point in the interior. By a reference to the books it can be ascertained by whom and from whence was the shipment made. That it is the opening mystery to the clearing up of a fearful crime admits of but little doubt.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING OF THE THIRD WARD.—The citizens of the Third ward will meet at No 3. engine house, corner Second and Adams streets, at seven o'clock Friday evening next, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the County Conservative Convention, which assembles on the 14th instant. It is expected there will be a full attendance, as matters of most vital importance to the Conservative party will be fully discussed. 2

THE RADICAL CONVENTION.

The Thieves in Conclave, and each Watching the Other.

We never saw such an affair as the Radical conclave was last night, and we hope, for the sake of decency, we shall never see another. Hunter and Lewis (Beecher, his right bower, was not there) and their faction were beaten at all points, and the expression of the Lewis-Hunter face was at times about as beautiful as our readers can imagine a rainbow would be in h—ll. We are sorry that the late hour at which they adjourned prohibits us from publishing an epitome of the proceedings, for we have rich and copious notes for the purpose, but we reserve it for a future occasion. They organized at about half past seven o'clock, but did not get to voting until near twelve o'clock. The time was principally spent in endeavoring to watch, catch and beat each other, and honestly and candidly we say it, leave two or three men out of the Convention, the negroes, low, degraded and debased as they undoubtedly are and were, in that Convention they were head and shoulders above the white men, both in point knowledge of parliamentary law and otherwise. When either party was satisfied that the other was "hedged" they went to voting, and A. P. Curry was nominated for Sheriff, having received 38 votes; Garrett, 25; Red Wickersham, his counterpart "blank," 2.

Wm. McLean was then nominated for TAX Collector.

F. W. Louis (the shade and counterpart of Barbour, except he is a little more elongated, and undoubtedly a little honester) was nominated for County Commissioner. Little Wickersham was not nominated, and he got as his dose the County Trusteeship.

Greeley got the nomination for County Register, and T. H. Boswell is the choice for Marshal of the Municipal Court.

A candidate for Justice of the Fourteenth Civil District was nominated, and a Mr. Griffith received the coveted honor, but came near being beaten by the negro lawyer Rankin. It was indeed a rich, rare and racy exhibition all through, and when we left it at nearly one o'clock, they were proposing to proceed to farm out the new offices spoken of elsewhere, created by the last stealing scheme of our Radical Legislature.

SHOOTING.

An attempt was made yesterday afternoon about half past four o'clock to shoot the president of the Gayoso Savings Institution. It appears that J. C. Lanier, the president was in room No. 6, Bethel block corner Court and Main, when he was waited upon by J. F. Taffe and Mr. Joe Musso jr., and called out of doors. When outside in the hall a conversation occurred which resulted in Mr. Taffe shooting at Lanier. The ball passed close to him, but we are glad to say it missed its mark. Taffe was preparing to fire another shot, when he was stopped by Lanier's friends, and thus was probably saved another tragedy. The gentlemen then left. We are sorry for this occurrence, because in no event would personal violence inflicted upon any of the officers of this institution better the condition of affairs, and we feel assured that the catastrophe is their misfortune, not their fault.

A large number of the Democratic citizens of the Eighth ward assembled in convention last night for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Democratic County Convention, to be held on Tuesday, the 14th inst. On motion Colonel Monsarrat was called to the chair. In a few pertinent remarks he explained the object of the meeting. The following named gentlemen were then unanimously chosen as delegates; Colonel Monsarrat, A. Ringwald, a clever gentleman and Jas. Canon, a Democrat with the following alternates; R H Norris, John Frick, Colonel Minier, James Nolan and James Ford.

At the same meeting a Democratic club was organized, and the following officers appointed; President, Thomas Moffet; Vice President, William Holmes; Secretary, J. R. Greban; Assistant Secretary, J. Schools; Treasurer, M. Cannon. J. Schools, A. Ringwald and J. Frick were appointed finance committee.

The meeting then adjourned.

Complimentary.

MEMPHIS, February 6, 1868.

We, the undersigned, jurors empanneled in the Shelby Circuit Court, to try the case of the State of Tennessee against Edward Bartlett, on an indictment for murder, take great pleasure in thus testifying to the uniform courtesy, urbanity and hospitality which we have received from the hands of Colonel D. Cockrell, proprietor of the Gayoso Hotel, during the several days we remained with him; and we most cordially recommend Colonel Cockerell and his hotel to the public as every way worthy of the most liberal patronage.

The Jury also return their grateful acknowledgements to Guy Thorpe, Deputy Sheriff attending them, for his kindness and polite attentions to their comforts, and for the faithful and efficient performance of his duties.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING—FIRST WARD.—At a meeting of the citizens of the First ward, last evening, Colonel A. H. Douglass in the chair, the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the Democratic convention to be held on the 14th instant: Thomas Foley, Patrick Kerns, John Handall, Robert Good, Colonel A. H. Douglass, Owen Daily, Edward Doling.

On motion, three additional delegates were added to the list—Patrick Kelly, Charles Meehan and Owen Dwyer.

On motion, it was agreed that the delegates elect, seven in number, insist on the admission of three extra delegates, as the number of votes cast in the ward entitles it to ten delegates.

On motion, five alternate delegates were appointed, to be composed of Thomas Winters, John Gerin, Edward Brennan, James Dolan and John Turner.

The meeting was then addressed by Colonel Sam. Walker, in which he appealed to the people of the First Ward to come forward and do their duty in the coming election; that was necessary for the preservation of the party.

He was then followed by Colonel A. H. Douglass, in a patriotic and eloquent speech, in which the Radical party, and the Criminal Court of Memphis in particular, were handled without gloves.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

COLONEL A. H. DOUGLASS, Chairman.
JAMES O'CONNOR, Secretary.

SHELBY CIRCUIT COURT—George W. Reeves, Judge, etc.—State vs. Edward Bartlett.—This case which has occupied the attention of the Circuit Court for several days, has been twice previously tried, and the motion for a new trial was granted. In one of those occasions many notorious cases which arose during the late war, involving in it many intricate questions of law. Messrs. Reeves, Gantt and Rodgers appeared for the State, and Messrs. Hallum and Chalmers for the defense. The points of the case are briefly these: Edward Bartlett, the defendant, a gentleman of over fifty, well known for his many acts of kindness to his fellow men, had for his overseer one James O'Bannon, and ex-Confederate soldier, and reputed a desperate character generally. On the morning of the 5th of January, the defendant raised his gun and shot the deceased James O'Bannon, who fell dead from his horse. General Gantt opened the argument for the prosecution, making one of the finest and most finished arguments ever delivered in Memphis, and perhaps he missed off it. Mr. Hallum made an able and effective and creditable argument on the same behalf, and was, we believe, followed by John Hallum, a brother attorney, who, though laboring under great physical difficulties, added greatly to his reputation as a lawyer and orator. He referred to the case as having grown out of political difficulties, and commented long and severely on the manner in which the ex-rebel manner in which he had always striven to prevent the enactment of such laws before the jury, calculated to prejudice the jury, either for or against the defendant. He would not impeach the jury as being loose, corrupt, especially, to be influenced by those questions which have in their train the passions of humanity, and he would admit his own universal weakness of it mainly in this respect, and the best of us are unknowingly led astray by it, and in this case, through the arguments attempting to cover up the real crime, and by appealing to the passions of the prejudiced men. The jury had been selected on account of their intelligence and good judgment, and the speaker feared not the result, which he felt would be in accordance with the right. General Gantt's speech a powerful illustration of unbridled right under great difficulties, and a terrible rebuke to the passions of the jury, either for or against the defendant. He would not impeach the conduct of the late soldiery as being loose

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

NASHVILLE, February 3, 1868.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Lindsley: An act to protect real estate brokers. Passed first reading and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

A resolution rescinding the joint resolution to pay the members of the General Assembly on a specie basis. Laid over under the rules.

Noes—Messrs. Frierson, Lindsley, McCall, Smith and Tyle.—5

Mr. Elliott entered a motion to reconsider the bill.

A message from the Governor was received, stating that Captain S. B. Brown, Receiver of the Memphis, Clarksville and Louisville railroad, might or might not be a defaulter, and that his reason for dismissing him were that he had never made a report to the proper authorities, and that he did not approve of his policy in reference to the Louisville and Nashville railroad. The subject matter was referred to a committee, and transmitted to the House.

On motion of Mr. Cate, a committee of conference was called of the House and Senate, to consult in regard to the appointment of A. E. Boone to settle up the accounts of the Quartermaster's and Paymaster's office. Mr. Cate said that those offices were vacated by a bill passed this session, and no report had ever been made out since those officers have retired. The Paymaster, Mr. Brooks, has paid out money belonging to the State, and has about $8,000 yet in his hands for which he has never accounted. Hence the necessity of having those books settled as soon as possible.

The question was then reconsidered, and the bill appointing A. E. Boone was passed by fifteen to five.

HOUSE.

NEW BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

House resolution for a joint special committee to investigate the affairs of the Bank of Tennessee. Adopted.

House resolution directing the Controller to advance $500 to Rev. Herman Bokum, for his Hand Book of Immigration. Adopted.

House resolution to Senate amendment to House bill regulating the conveyance of passengers by common carriers, was rejected, and the Senate amendment was concurred in.

To change the lines between the counties of Shelby and Tipton.

Mr. Agee offered an amendment changing the lines between the counties of Anderson and Campbell. Adopted.

Mr. Cordell offered an amendment changing the lines between the counties of Scott and Campbell, and between the counties of Fentress and Scott. Adopted.

Mr. Taylor, of Perry and Decatur, offered an amendment changing the lines between the counties of Hickman and Perry, and between the counties of Humphreys and Perry. Adopted, and the bill passed third reading.

Somebody said that Thad. Stevens is only living on in hopes that Parion will die, and so be unable to write his biography.

The Star of Saturday states that "the story in regard to remarks alleged to have been made by Judge Fields, of the United States Supreme Court, in regard to the Reconstruction measures of Congress, is likely to prove a huge sell at the expense of the newspaper men using it. As we are informed, it is a case of mistaken identity; a gentleman who bears considerable personal resemblance to Judge Field, having been taken for him at a social gathering held in this city some two weeks ago, and remarks made by this party having been attributed to Judge F."

INDUSTRIAL AID SOCIETY

INTELLIGENCE DEPARTMENT.

THE Ladies of the Aid Society have connected with their rooms a daily and weekly Intelligence Department, where any persons desiring "help" in any capacity can procure it by paying the trifling fee of 25 cents. Other offices of similar character charge from one to three dollars.

During the great scarcity of money, there is with us a great demand for help. Among the applicants will not be found the young gentlemen of the city who have work of this kind to do in the Dental, Medical and Law offices, but persons in good manner and at reasonable rates; where they can be found at the Intelligence Department of the Aid Society. By doing this they will benefit the poor of the city, who depend on their needle for subsistence. The Ladies solicit the patronage of all who have it to give out. Remember, the following articles are made by the employees, the society being supported by its membership.
